

quick start guide

Building Community Online

UCSF

Although on-campus space reservations have been put on pause, it does not mean you need to stop building community with your student group. We encourage your organization to connect virtually through meetings and other creative programming.

Learn About Your Community.

- Post a discussion topic in the Group Portal
  - How are you fitting movement into your day?
  - What was the last fiction book you read?
- Ask an ice breaker question via chat during a zoom meeting
  - What color describes your mood right now?
- Encourage members to turn video on or upload a virtual background
  - View and download a background

Support Your Community.

- Invite a campus partner to your group meeting
  - Mental Health and Primary Care – Student Health & Counseling
  - Networking Online – Alumni Association
  - Ally Training – LGBT Resource Center

Engage Your Community.

- Host a restorative circle for your group – Restorative Justice Practices
- Practice your video interviews skills with StandOut – Career & Prof Devel

Additional Resources

UC Berkeley's Setting Your Virtual Space | UC Berkeley's Establishing Your Virtual Space